Governor Musgrove Reappoints Samuel Tom Hall To Mississippi State Personnel Board

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has reappointed Samuel Tom Hall of Oxford to a five-year term on the Mississippi State Personnel Board as an at-large member. The term will commence on July 1, 2002 and end June 30, 2007.

“Tom Hall has served on the Personnel board since 1997, and I look forward to his leadership over the next five years,” Musgrove said. “His management and policy experience at the state and federal level make him an asset to the personnel board.”

Hall retired as a Marine Officer in 1986. He is currently the President of Miltec Research and Technology, Inc. located in Oxford. He has been involved in several private businesses and in community and economic development. Hall also taught at the University of Mississippi in the computer science department.

A native of New Albany, Hall and his wife Margaret have two children.
